

Twelve Areas of Discipleship

1. Devotional life – Walking with God in Prayer and Bible study
2. Moral life – living a holy life: speech, sexually pure, financially disciplined & generous, exercising self-control in all things, avoiding greed, controlling anger, keeping the desire for more in check
3. Mental life – Growing healthy attitudes of contentment, peace, joy, patience, and thankfulness
4. Use of Time – living a balanced life – time for family, spouse, children, helping others, self, God
5. Understanding God’s will for your life – understanding your unique gifts, experiences and pursuing your unique design and purpose in God’s kingdom.
6. Relationships with others – seeking connection with others and perfecting love for those who are different than you
7. Surrendered life – submitting to the leading of the Holy Spirit, allowing God to direct the path of your life decisions: family, career, and ministry
8. Serving Others – Finding opportunities to bring mercy, compassion, redemption, and justice to those who lack it
9. Worship – Finding times to come into God’s presence, to surrender self-consciousness to worship with all your heart, all your mind, all your body, and all your soul
10. Growing – Consistently aware of where God is exposing areas in your life in need of growth and deliberately striving to grow and stretch
11. Study – Seeking a deeper understanding of God’s word, challenging preconceptions, reading with fresh eyes, allowing God to be revealed through his word in new ways
12. Living by faith – Trusting God’s provision and faithfulness for the needs of life beyond what is visible and concrete in life allowing you to pursue imaginative life paths following God’s leading and calling
